Looking for a Creative Way to Spend your Evenings this Summer?

Experience for yourself what Art Center at Night has to Offer.

Art Center College of Design invites you to drop in from 7 to 9 p.m., April 16-18 to experience our popular evening continuing studies program. Whether you're looking to advance in your professional career or just in the mood for a new creative outlet, Art Center at Night has a wide range of courses to fit your needs—and your schedule.

Come sit in on a few of our more than 200 courses, observe student presentations and critiques, take a self-guided tour of the campus and meet our instructional staff of working professionals, many of whom also teach in Art Center's renowned degree programs. Like what you see? You can sign up immediately for summer session classes and workshops starting May 14.

We're located in Art Center College of Design's South Campus at 950 S. Raymond Avenue in Pasadena. Parking is free and plentiful.

On the night of your visit, please stop by the Public Programs office on the 2nd floor to pick up a room schedule and map of South Campus, ask questions or register for Art Center at Night classes.

Registration for the summer term begins April 9, 2007. To register for courses online, visit www.artcenter.edu/atnight.
